

OC PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Summer Reading Book List

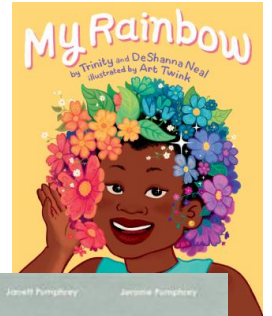

Grades PreK - 3

MY RAINBOW

BY TRINITY NEAL

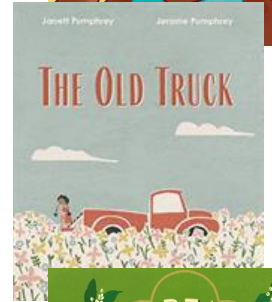

A mother puts all her love into making a rainbow colored wig for her transgender daughter in this picture book based on the author's experience doing the same.

THE OLD TRUCK

BY JARRETT PUMPHREY

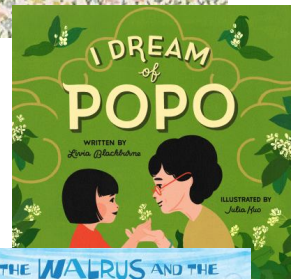

A young farmgirl grows up while an old truck on her farm falls further and further into disrepair. That is until she, now an industrious young woman, decides to fix it.

I DREAM OF POPO

BY LIVIA BLACKBURNE

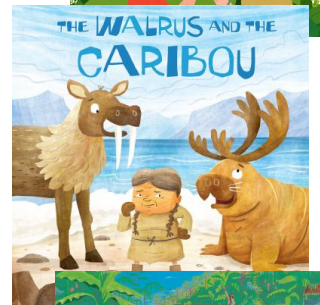

An ocean isn't wide enough to keep Popo and her granddaughter from enjoying a special connection.

THE WALRUS AND THE CARIBOU

BY MAIKA HARPER

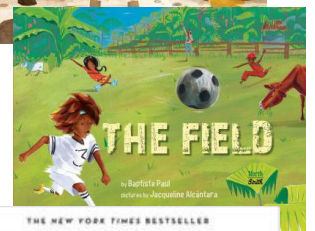

An Inuit tale of how the walrus and caribou came to have their very different bodies.

THE FIELD

BY BAPTISTE PAUL

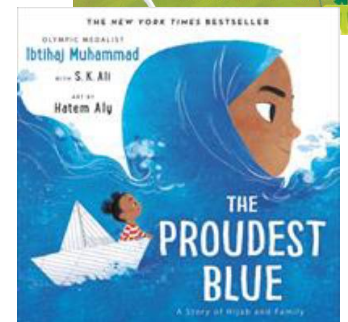

The joy of playing soccer is never in doubt in this book that follows a young Caribbean boy playing his heart out.

THE PROUDEST BLUE

BY IBTIHAJ MUHAMMAD

Faizah relates how she feels on the first day her sister, sixth-grader Asiya, wears a hijab to school.

OC PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Summer Reading Book List

Grades PreK - 3

FIREBIRD

BY MISTY COPELAND

American Ballet Theater soloist Misty Copeland instructs a young girl how to dance like the firebird.

WE ARE GRATEFUL: OTSALIHELIGA

BY TRACI SORELL

Think about why you might be thankful as you read about the ways members of the Cherokee Nation use the word "otsaliheliga" to express thankfulness. XP 970 CHEROKEE

THE FEARLESS FLIGHTS OF HAZEL YING LEE

BY JULIE LEUNG

From her first airplane ride, Hazel knew she wanted to become a pilot. When she joined the Women Airforce Service Pilots, Hazel became the first Chinese American woman to fly for the US military. XP 92 LEE

OPENING THE ROAD: VICTOR HUGO GREEN AND HIS GREEN BOOK

BY KAILA V DAWSON

Traveling by car is an American tradition, one that not all Americans could do safely. Victor Hugo Green's guide helped African Americans gain a bit more freedom on the road. XP 92 GREEN

WHERE'S HALMONI?

BY JULIE J. KIM

A Korean girl searches for her Halmoni in this easy graphic novel based on Korean folktales. XP 741.5973

