The Love Bug

(Sung to the tune of London Bridge)

Do you hear that buzzing sound?
Buzzing sound? Buzzing sound?
Do you hear that buzzing sound?

It is getting close.

There it is, it has two eyes,
has two eyes, has two eyes,
There it is, it has two eyes,
And it's shaped like a heart.

Oh, my! It's a cute love bug!
A cute love bug! A cute love bug!

Oh, my, it's a cute love bug!
Here to give you a HUG!

Grown-up tip

Repetition helps children develop oral skills and stretches their memory muscles. Repetition is crucial for young minds as learning something new creates new connections in the brain and these connections are reinforced through repetition.
